Dear parents and carers,

We have had a 'spot-acular' day today for Children in Need. Thank you for your support with this wonderful event-remember you can use the QR code to donate online.

Next week is anti-bullying week. We will be raising awareness with a virtual assembly and activities in class. Our playtime buddies will be continuing to be role models and promote our child-friendly anti-bullying policy. Children are invited to wear odd socks on Tuesday to raise awareness.

As always, thank you for your support. Take care and stay safe.

IMPORTANT

With the number of COVID cases ever increasing in Biddulph, I urge everyone to help protect one another in and around school. Please ensure that only ONE adult enters our school playground, you are wearing a mask, adhere to the social distancing guidance whilst following the one way system.

* If anyone in your child's household or support bubble develops symptoms your child MUST stay away from school until the results of their test are received. If you are made aware of a positive case whilst your child is at school please contact us immediately and arrange to collect your child immediately. Your child will be taken to our medical room along with a member of staff who will stay with them whilst wearing full PPE until they are collected*

On Wednesday 11th November, the whole school took part in a 2 minute silence in their classrooms to remember the soldiers who have fought and died, and those who are still fighting for our country today. The Head Boy and Head Girl and the Deputies, recorded a video which was shown to everyone as well. This can be viewed on the school website, in the 'Gallery' section. Thank you to everyone who has supported the Royal British Legion and bought poppies, slap bands and wrist bands this year. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Take a look at this online after school sports club through YouTube that children can access at home.

The Open the Book team from St Lawrence's Church have very kindly offered to buy a Nativity story booklet for each child in school which they will bring home nearer to Christmas time. They will be quarantined before they are given out. If you would prefer your child not to receive this please get in touch with the school office and let us know. Thank you.
