Dear parents and carers,

What an amazing week! The children and staff have enjoyed celebrating the Queen's Jubilee today with a street party lunch, royal crafts, a 'bake off & singing the national anthem. Don't forget to look on Twitter for all the nice photographs. The PTFA have also kindly donated Jubilee special pin badges for every child to mark the occasion. They are a lovely keepsake - thank you to our PTFA. We are all really proud of our Young Voices choir who performed brilliantly last night at the arena in Manchester. A great night was had by pupils, staff and parents. They certainly raised the roof!

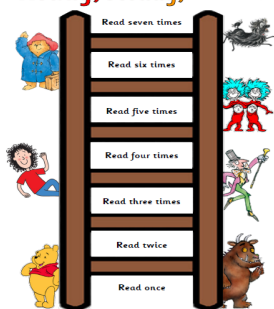

Ms Smith, who works in our morning Tiger Club, is leaving today. We wish her all the best for the future. Miss Johnson, who works in Little Ladybirds, is taking over her role from after half term.

We have also had some special visitors today too...Mrs Cooper with baby Harry and Mrs Wade with baby Henry. They have loved joining in with our Jubilee celebrations.

Have a fabulous half term and we will see you back on TUESDAY 7th June due to INSET on Monday 6th.

Lots of love from Mrs Jukes and the Oxhey Staff Team.

The Queen's Jubilee Celebrations

The children have had a wonderful week preparing for today's Jubilee celebrations.

They have made crowns, flags and had fun creating their own decorated biscuits and cakes too. They have enjoyed a 'Jubilee Street Party' style lunch in the hall before the whole school headed outside to enjoy a tea party too!

Thank you for all of the wonderful outfits and headwear, the school has been a sea of colour today!

Take a look at some of the photos from today.

The School Council judged each cake and chose the winner!

Well done to Amazing Alligators for their winning cake.

A huge well done also goes to the children in Early Years who made Corgi Cupcakes and were our runners up!
