Visit our Twitter page for more pictures of this week's events

Dear parents and carers,

It was lovely to see you all at the art gallery on Monday evening. We have some very talented artists here at Oxhey and the children enjoyed showcasing their work to you. We will be displaying some of the pupils' art work around school too.

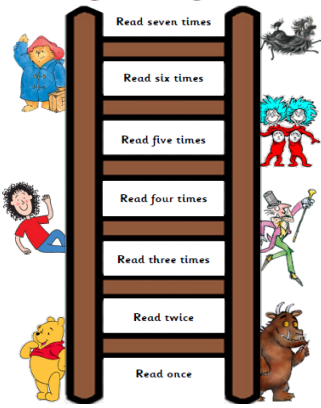

The rest of the week has been just as exciting with our careers week...we hope you have been following us on Twitter to see how the week progressed. See overleaf for a special page.

Next week is an exciting one for our Y4 pupils who have been practising really hard for their leavers' show. Please come along to watch and enjoy the awards ceremony afterwards - I cannot wait to see the performance.

It is also our 'Welcome To' meetings next week where lots of important information for September will be shared. A reminder text with a link to the letter has been sent.

Have a great weekend from Mrs Jukes and the Oxhey Staff Team

Careers Week

This week, pupils have had a wonderful time exploring a range of creative careers. We have thought about our own interests, skills and qualities that make us suited to certain professions.

A huge THANK YOU to the visitors and parents who have contributed to making this week such a success!
